

Short CV

Nina Rehnqvist M.D. Ph.D. Born 1944. Worked at Danderyd Hospital Karolinska Institutet as a clinician and head of department in academic cardiology until april 1995. Deputy General Director in the National Board for Health and Welfare april 1995- april 2003. Chief Medical Officer of Sweden. Major issues in the National Board were Patient Safety and Quality of Care. The National Quality registers became established and National Guidelines were introduced. Since april 2003 Director of SBU – the Swedish Council of Technology Assessment in Health Care. Adjunct professor of cardiology Karolinska Institutet.