How to find the Biomedical Center

The Biomedical Center, BMC, can be reached on foot if you are staying in central Lund. If on foot, look out for the large grey concrete Hospital building (visible for miles around Lund). The BMC Biomedical Center is located on the east side of the main hospital building (map).

If you arrive at the train station in central Lund, many hotels (eg Lundia, Grand Hotel, Petri Pumpa) are within walking distance to BMC Biomedical Center. In contrast, for example Star Hotel, Hotel Sparta and Good Morning Hotels are all too far away to be reached on foot.

If your final destination is not within walking distance or the weather is not nice enough (check a forecast for the region), the choices are:

Taxi

Taxi stop outside of the train station and a typical fare within Lund is appr. 50 SEK (5,5 Euro or 6 USD). When taking a cab, if they do not immediately recognize the name Biomedical Center request to be taken to Sölvegatan 19. The building is some 50 m off the main road (Sölvegatan), has a red brick exterior and is clearly labelled with its name.

The Reception is situated directly in the main entrance. The Fernström Lecture Hall is on your immediate left, once you have entered the building. The Departmental Offices are located on the ground floor in a separate wing if you turn left just inside the main entrance and continue pass the Fernström Lecture Hall.

Bus

The bus station is located in central Lund approximately 500 meters southeast of the train station. From there you can catch a bus to almost anywhere in Lund. The fare is 14 SEK (1,55 Euro 1,7 USD).

Lund on the map

Lund is located at the southern tip of Sweden in the region Skåne. It is readily reached from the European continent by rail, car or plane.

How to get to Lund

If you travel to Lund by air there are two airports close to Lund:

Malmö Airport

(Sturup, appr. 25 km south of Lund)

Frequent connections from Stockholm and some regular international flights, eg from London Stansted airport (Ryan Air). There is a shuttle bus (around 12 USD) service from the airport to central Lund, usually in connection with planes from Stockholm. It is also possible to take a taxi from Sturup to Lund but be sure to check the cost of the fare before you get in the taxi. Typical fares are around 35-45 USD.

Copenhagen Airport

(Kastrup, Denmark, appr. 35 min by train to Lund)

Most people travelling to Lund will come this way and continue to Lund via Malmö City. There is a bridge linking Sweden and Denmark, which operates a direct train service to Malmö. From there you can reach Lund (19 km away) using the local trains (Pågatåg). They are easy to spot since they are purple. They typically run every 20-60 minutes, less frequently evenings and weekends. Tickets can only be bought in special vending machines which are also purple (single ticket 4,5 USD).

Taxis will accept all major credit cards. Prices may vary. A typical fare from Malmö to Lund is around 35 USD. Be sure to check the price of the fare before you get in the taxi.
