Rolf Luft Award 2013

The Rolf Luft Foundation invites nominations for the 2013 Rolf Luft Award in Endocrinology and Diabetes research.

The Prize ceremony will take place at Nobel Forum, Karolinska Institutet, followed by a lecture by the awardee on his/her research to an audience of basic and clinical researchers and clinicians. The setting will be a half day symposium. Previous distinguished awardees have been Jeffrey Friedman, Ronald Kahn, Bruce Spiegelman, Stephen O'Rahilly, Sir Philip Cohen, Wylie Vale, Graham Hardie, Lewis C. Cantley, Jeffrey Scott Flier and David John Mangelsdorf.

The nomination should include a CV, a list of the nominee's ten most important publications and a short description of the nominee's contributions to science and health (no more than 200 words). The deadline for the nominations is May 15, 2012. Nominations should be submitted electronically to the Chairman of the Foundation, Professor Kerstin Brismar, e-mail:
