ISSA Tentative program

Sunday August 24

About 18.30 Welcome dinner

Monday August 25

09.00 – 12.30
Welcome
Presentation of participants and mentors
Introduction on Epidemiological aspects – Peter Nilsson
Introduction on Biomedical aspects – Gunnar Gouras
Introduction on geriatric and clinical aspects – Fabrizia Lattanzio
Introduction on Psychological aspects – Boo Johansson
Introduction on Social and Economical aspects – Giovanni Lamura
Introduction on Environmental aspects – Susanne Iwarsson

13.30 – 17.30
Introduction on career building – Anne Martin-Matthews
Mentoring session (4 groups of five students + mentors)
Plenary on issues from Mentoring session

Tuesday August 26

09.00 – 12.30
Study design and qualitative methods – Anne Martin-Matthews
Study design and quantitative methods - Oliver Schilling

13.30 – 17.30
Study design and mixed methods – Susanne Iwarsson
Potentials and pitfalls in longitudinal studies – Boo Johansson

19.00 – 22.00
Dinner at down-town restaurant

Wednesday August 27

09.00 – 12.30
Potentials and pitfalls in epidemiological studies – Peter Nilsson
Cross-country research on ageing in Europe – Giovanni Lamura
13.30 – 17.30
Dementias and their impact on the ageing process – Gunnar Gouras
The ageing individual and the environment – Susanne Iwarsson
Health economics and costs/benefits to society and the ageing individual – Carlos Chiatti

Thursday August 28

09.00 – 12.30
Writing a research article: principles and techniques – Susanne Iwarsson

13.30 – 17.30
Applying for research funding: principles and techniques – Anne Martin-Matthews & Steven Schmidt

Friday August 29

09.00 – 13.00
Knowledge dissemination, bridge building and career building
Closing plenary

13.00 –
Lunch and departure