26 different libraries make up a university-wide network in Lund, Malmö and Helsingborg. The libraries offer course books and other literature, study places and often study rooms, computers and wireless networks as well. The University Library (UB) is a public research library with legal deposit copies of Swedish prints, manuscripts, archives and a range of special collections.

Search Functions
www.lub.lu.se/en/search-systems-and-tools Consult the Lovisa library catalogue to find out what literature the libraries hold and whether it is available for lending. You can also check and renew your loans, order and request materials and update your contact information. LUBsearch is a platform for electronic resources such as e-books, databases, online dictionaries, reference books and articles from e-journals, most of which are available in full text.

Stil Identity
www.lunduniversity.lu.se/stil
As a student at Lund University, you can access the University’s electronic resources and many other services with your Stil identity, no matter where you are.

Library Card
https://lovisa2.lub.lu.se/search/query?locale=en
To get a library card, start by creating a new account by filling out the web form found in the left menu on the Lovisa start page. Then visit one of our libraries to obtain the card (remember to bring a photo ID). If you are a distance learning student, you can apply via email. The library card is valid at all Lund University Libraries, but there may be variations in what materials can be borrowed and for how long.

Interlibrary Loans
www.lub.lu.se/en/services-and-activities/interlibrary-loans
If the item is not held by a library in Lund, students and university staff can request an interlibrary loan from other libraries. Use the form on the libraries’ websites. Interlibrary loans within the Nordic countries are free of charge.
