Welcome to the Nordic Task-Force Nordic initiative for Precision Medicine Symposium in Malmö. We have an exciting speaker line-up for the major stake-holders in precision medicine policy and research from the Nordic region and beyond.

Speakers:
Paul Franks, Lund University, Malmö, Sweden
Camilla Stoltenberg, Norwegian Institute of Public Health
Mark Daly, Broad Institute, USA
Kári Stefánsson, deCode genetics, Iceland
Richard Rosenquist, SciLifeLab, Stockholm, Sweden
Alexander Gray, The Norwegian Directorate of eHealth (NDE), Oslo
Ain Aaviksoo, E-services Development and Innovation, Ministry of Social Affairs, Estonia
Claus Bjørn Billehøj, Centre for Regional Development, Capital Region of Denmark
Aarno Palotie, Institute for Molecular Medicine Finland, FIMM, Helsinki
Gert Sørensen, Danish Human Genome Center, Copenhagen
Svend Hartling, Capital Region of Denmark, Copenhagen
Maria Nilsson, NordForsk, Oslo, Norway
Maiken Engelstad, Ministry of Health and Care Services, Norway
Søren Brunak, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
Lili Milani, Estonian Genome center, University of Tartu
Ole Andreassen, Institute of Clinical medicine, University of Oslo, Norway
Thomas Werge, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
John Ryals, Metabolon, USA

For more information and detailed program, please visit http://www.ludc.lu.se/nifpm
Or contact Pernilla Siming: pernilla.siming@med.lu.se